

Chamber Board to Review Member Survey Results"

When the Blair County Chamber's Board of Directors meets on Thursday, much of the discussion will likely focus on the results of the recent survey of Chamber members. "As a follow-up to calls that the Chamber staff made to all member-businesses in April, we wanted to get some additional insight on what members were thinking on issues like social media and how they were weathering the ongoing challenges with Covid-19," explained Board Chair Darin Tornatore. "The data will help our Board as we begin a new strategic planning process." The Chamber plans to continue with periodic surveys to determine member preferences as it formulates future meeting agendas.

Partnership With U.S. Chamber Will Create Important Dialogue

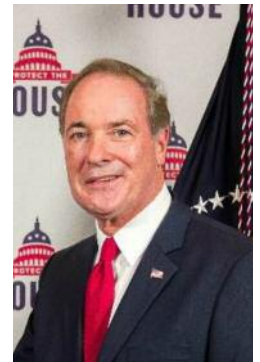

The decision of the Blair County Chamber to accept a partnership opportunity with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce should result in some positive dialogue, according to Chamber President Joe Hurd. The opportunity involves a U.S. Chamber initiative to address Inequality of Opportunity through education, employment, entrepreneurship and criminal justice reform. "It makes sense for us to have some conversations that will hopefully yield some new and innovative strategies for us and for groups in our community that have much to offer but who don't always have a seat at the table," Hurd noted. "We see a variety of positive things that can come from this initiative."

Congressman Joyce to Address Executive Roundtable

Congressman John Joyce will be the featured speaker at Monday's Executive Roundtable meeting. The Congressman will provide an update on key issues related to the business and education communities and will field questions from Roundtable members. The meeting will be conducted via Zoom. The Executive Roundtable is a committee of the Chamber that consists of CEO's of Blair County businesses with at least 100 employees. For more information on the Roundtable, contact Joe Hurd at (814) 943-8151 or email him at jhurd@blairchamber.com.

Congratulations...

When Sharon Green (pictured below, fourth from left), owner of Bloom Yoga, scheduled her "Business Before Hours" and ribbon cutting at her new Altoona location, she evidently wasn't superstitious. She scheduled it for Friday, March 13th. Sharon must have known something that others didn't know because very soon after cutting the ribbon, Covid-19 reared its ugly head and shut everything down. What Sharon lost out on to this point was the opportunity to have her ribbon-cutting photo featured in the Blair Business Mirror. Rather than holding back the photo any longer, we are publishing it in today's NETWORKS Digital News. Congratulations Sharon!

Buy Here. Thrive Here., PA 30-Day Fund Looking for Support

As more businesses enter the recovery phase from Covid-19, it's important that they don't need to accomplish that alone. Two programs geared to assist businesses are the Buy Here. Thrive Here. program and the PA 30-Day Fund. Buy Here. Thrive Here. is the Chamber's media-based effort to promote the importance of local buying as a way to help local businesses gain some revenue stability. The PA 30-Day Fund helps small businesses by providing grants of $3,000 as a bridge to getting a business on firm footing. The one thing that both programs need is help with the financial aspect of making a difference. To contribute to Buy Here. Thrive Here., contact Joe Hurd at jhurd@blairchamber.com. To contribute to The PA 30-Day Fund, email Jim Foreman at jforeman@procarebetter.com.

Highmark/ Chamber Golf Classic Headed Toward Another Sellout

The Highmark/Chamber Golf Classic has been one of the more highly anticipated events for several years. It appears that even a date change and the accompanying pandemic can't discourage business people from signing-up for this year's event, set for August 20th at Iron Masters Country Club. The goals, as always, are a sellout and the opportunity to have a great time. To register as a golfer or a volunteer, contact Stacy Hoover at 943-8151. If you'd like to be considered for one of the remaining sponsorships or to reserve a tee-and-green sign, contact Jessie Covert at that same number. It's been a difficult couple of months. It's time for some fun and relaxation!
