Registration Continues for Chamber's Annual Meeting & Awards Presentation

The Chamber will make history once again on February 26th as we hold our Annual Meeting & Awards Presentation on Zoom, beginning at 7:45 a.m. The event will include a look back at the accomplishments and challenges that faced the organization during 2020. It will mark the passing of the gavel as board chair from Darin Tornatore to Richard Fiore, Jr. and it will feature the presentation of seven awards to unsuspecting recipients. It's a great way for Chamber members to feel good about the direction of the Chamber while paying tribute to some people who did some outstanding things during a year where that didn't happen often enough. To attend the Annual Meeting & Awards Presentation, register at www.blairchamber.com.

Chamber President, Congressman Joyce Discuss Ways to Assist Business

Blair County Chamber President Joe Hurd and Congressman John Joyce met last Tuesday to discuss ways that the local business community can more quickly recover from the impact of Covid-19. "The Congressman is extremely concerned with the difficulties that continue to handcuff our businesses," Hurd acknowledged. "He is keenly aware of how effective some programs like PPP have been in helping businesses through tough times but is also aware that some other attempts have fallen short in what's been delivered." Hurd provided the Congressman with an overview of efforts that the Chamber will be undertaking to address workforce challenges. "Businesses are already getting nervous about how to fill job openings," Hurd disclosed. "It's much easier to recover from a business downturn if you can avoid major recruitment efforts."

Ronald McDonald House Charities Helps Leadership Youth Program

The Chamber's Leadership Blair County Youth program relies completely on sponsorships and donations to operate each year. Fortunately, the business community and charitable organizations have stepped-up in a big way. One of those, Ronald McDonald House Charities, recently presented the Blair County Chamber Foundation with a $5,000 donation to help defray the costs associated with LBC Youth. "We're very grateful to Ronald McDonald House for once again making a positive difference in our ability to continue to provide a quality program," admitted Chamber VP Gwen Query, who oversees LBC Youth. Anyone interested in making a donation to the program, contact Cindy Cessna at (814) 943-8151.
