Thursday's "Breakfast Club" to Focus Attention on Operation Our Town

Each March, the Blair County Chamber and Operation Our Town partner on a Breakfast Club event that raises awareness of the importance of the local business community in furthering the Our Town mission. This year that event, set for this Thursday, March 11th at 7:45 a.m., will be presented on Zoom rather than in-person. Among the highlights will be the presentation of the 2021 Community Partnership Award to retiring Altoona Police Chief Janice Freehling. There will also be a number of Law Enforcement Awards presented. The speakers at the Breakfast Club will be District Attorney Peter Weeks and Jim Walstrom. The cost to attend the Zoom event will be $15/person. To register and get the link, go to www.blairchamber.com. Corporate sponsor of the Breakfast Club is Pinnacle Cleaning Services.

Nutrition is Topic of Friday's "Chamber Wellness Chat"

It's really not much of a surprise that people in the workforce don't always perform to their maximum abilities due to a variety of factors. At the top of that list is often inadequate nutrition. The next Chamber Wellness Chat, scheduled for this Friday, March 12th from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. on Zoom, will address ways that employers and employees can remedy that situation. Justin Delasko, a registered dietitian, will present "Let's Eat for the Health of It." Delasko will suggest ways that people can increase their energy, balance their blood sugar and always have

"gas in their tank" at the end of the workday. There is no cost to Chamber members to attend the Wellness Chat. Non-members can attend for $10. To register and get the Zoom link, go to the Chamber Website at www.blairchamber.com. Corporate sponsor of the Chamber Chat is Babb, Inc.
