Board of Directors to Discuss Business Retention Strategies

The Chamber's Board of Directors will meet on Thursday at 7:30 a.m. on Zoom. Among the agenda items will be a discussion to determine ways that the Chamber can help members who are struggling to stay current with their membership dues. "We recognize that businesses everywhere are having a tough time meeting their financial obligations," explained Chamber Board Chair Richard Fiore, Jr. "We also know that there are many businesses that are willing to help these businesses weather difficult times. Our board will consider ways that the two groups can be brought together." To address the Board at Thursday's meeting, call Joe Hurd at (814) 943-8151 by noon on Tuesday.

Chamber Looking to Resume "Business After Hours"

With the anticipated relaxation of the Covid-19 rules regarding gatherings, the Blair County Chamber is looking to resume networking programs. Business After Hours heads that list. "We're in the process of contacting businesses that had signed-up to host in 2021 to make sure that they are still onboard," explained Stacy Hoover, the Chamber VP who oversees Business After Hours. "We will also contact businesses that were scheduled to host in 2020 but had their event cancelled to determine if they wanted to be considered for vacancies in the future. And we'll be recruiting new sign-ups." Any Chamber Member interested in hosting a Business After Hours should contact Stacy at (814) 943-8151 or email her at shoover@blairchamber.com.

Let Us Help You Hire Your Next Employee!

As many Blair County businesses continue to gear-up for 2021 in terms of hiring, the Chamber's Job Board is beginning to see an uptick in employment opportunities. The Job Board is available only to Chamber members and there is no cost to post up to three positions. If you have
