Workplace Wellness Offering Best Practices "Sanity Sessions"

From the committee that brought you "Wellness Chats" comes Best Practices "Sanity Sessions." The Chamber's Workplace Wellness Committee has been hosting Wellness Chats for 30 minutes on the second Friday of each month. Each Chat has addressed some aspect of wellness related to the workplace. The committee decided to commit the last two months of the year to having people share their best practices on some aspect of wellness. "It's been a tough year for everyone," admitted Phyllis Baker, who chairs the Workplace Wellness Committee. "We felt it would be nice to have people share their good thoughts and their frustrations with others, just as sort of a cleansing exercise. That's why we're calling it a Sanity Session." The Sanity Sessions will be held from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. on November 12th and December 10th. Both are on Zoom. There is no cost to Chamber members to participate. Non-members pay $10. To register and get the Zoom Link, go to www.blairchamber.com.
