Chamber Check-Up to Help Businesses Know the Chamber Better

Membership in the Blair County Chamber comes with an incredible number of opportunities and benefits. Unfortunately, many Chamber members fail to take the time to learn about those opportunities and benefits so they don't get the maximum value for their membership. To help members (and non-members!) learn about the organization, the Chamber is holding a "Chamber Check-Up" program on April 24th at two different times. The first begins at 9:00 a.m.; the second at 3:00 p.m. Each lasts no more than one hour and is held at the Devorris

Center for Business Development, 3900 Industrial Park Drive in Altoona. There is no cost to attend but registration is encouraged so that we can accommodate all who are interested. Register by calling (814) 943-8151 or online at www.blairchamber.com.

Healthy Workplace Committee to Initiate "Fit Facts"

The Chamber's Healthy Workplace Committee is committed to helping local businesses to look out for the health of their employees. The committee is putting together programs aimed at issues that compromise workplace health and one of those programs will involve providing "Fit Facts" in upcoming Chamber newsletters. Those Fit Facts will both educate and inform employers of ways to utilize the resources of the Healthy Workplace Committee to do what many employers might not have the time to do. For more information on the committee, contact Joe Hurd at (814) 943-8151 or email him at jhurd@blairchamber.com.
