FITFACT

E is for Emotional Wellness

When we introduced the new “Fit Fact” feature, created by the Chamber’s Healthy Workplace Committee, we reminded employers that they have SPIES in their businesses. From the wellness standpoint, the “E” in SPIES stands for Emotional Wellness. Among the ways to deal with emotions at work are: Embrace your emotions, Accept that you can’t pick your co-workers, Create boundaries, Use your vacation days, Get adequate sleep, Step away for lunch, Know your limits, Be willing to acknowledge your emotions, and Don’t be afraid to get professional help!
