We know you are tired of receiving all these emails. To be honest – we're tired of sending them.

From now on, we are freeing up your inbox! Expect three emails from the Chamber each week. The first email will contain the NETworks Digital News and the second will have a copy of the Business Insight page attached. If you do not receive these publications and would like to, visit blairchamber.com to subscribe! The final email of the week will have a list of upcoming events. All flyers will be attached and will have a link to the event page for you to register. You may find special email in your inbox every now and then, but don't worry, those are just for really important messages. Keep an eye out for those three emails and keep up-to-date with all things Chamber-related on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, TikTok, and LinkedIn.

Congratulations...
