

Executive Roundtable to Address Educational Challenges

Blair County Schools continue to have challenges that make it difficult to meet some of the expectations of the business community, many related to workforce. To discuss strategies related to those challenges, the Chamber Executive Roundtable will meet on November 29th at 7:30 a.m. at the Devorris Center. A panel of educators will lead the discussion. The panel consists of Betsy Baker, Superintendent of Spring Cove School District; Leslie Estep, Superintendent of Tyrone Area School District; and Brad Hatch, Superintendent of Altoona Area School District. For information on the Executive Roundtable, contact Joe Hurd at (814) 943-8151.

Young Professionals to hold FREE Holiday Trivia Night

The Young Professionals of Blair County will be hosting a night of holiday cheer and trivia at Greenbean Coffee House on December 5th. There is no cost to attend this event, and guests will have to buy their own beverages. There will be two rounds of trivia – holiday music trivia and holiday movie trivia. The event will begin at 5:30 p.m. with trivia starting at 6:00 p.m. The entire event will end at 7:30 p.m. and the winning team will get a prize. While there is no cost to attend,

Best Practices Forum to Focus on College Partnerships

Partnerships are important in helping non-profit businesses to work more closely with local colleges and for local college students to have access to opportunities provided by non-profit businesses. The next Best Practices Forum, hosted by the Chamber's Committee of Non-profit Businesses, will focus on the specifics of making great relationships take place where they can do the most good. Entitled, "Colleges and Non-Profits: Partners in Progress," the panel discussion format will feature Lauren Priscilla Jacobson of Penn State Altoona, Sara Worley of Juniata College and Andrew Stopko of Saint Francis University. The event will be held on December 1st at the Devorris Center for Business Development. The cost to attend Best Practices is $10 for Chamber members and $20 for non-members. Space is limited. Register at www.blair-chamber.com or call (814) 943-8151.
